

START NOW ON YOUR WILDFIRE EVACUATION PLAN

Delay can be deadly

READY	SET	GO
Start now You, your home, and family may not be in danger today, but you should start now on your evacuation plan.	Heed voluntary evacuation alerts Leave early Stay tuned to TV, radio, internet for updates.	Mandatory Evacuation If you are still home, leave now.
Decide where you will go. Chart a safe evacuation route. Review GMF fire evacuation plan. Decide where to meet should you get separated. Appoint a family contact person.	Make sure everyone knows: -Which routes to take to get to safety -Where to meet in case you get separated. - Designated family contact person's phone number	Head for safety Decide where you will go. Learn where shelters are. Determine safe evacuation route. Review the GMF evacuation plan. Keep your radio, TV, internet on for updates.
Pack - Supplies for two weeks - Important records - Medications - Family pictures - Phone and computer chargers	Load Your Vehicle Supplies, important records, medications, chargers. Leave room for pets.	Don't Waste Time Pack enough clothing, food, and medications to last two weeks. Don't hunt for nonessential things. Delay could be deadly.
Plan for animals Make sure there's room in the car for pets and their food. Plan ahead to move large animals to a safe place.	Plan for animals Large animals should have been moved to safety before now.	Family meetup and contacts Know where family members will meet in case you get separated. Choose a family contact person. Make sure everyone has his/her phone number.
Sign Up for Evacuation Alerts Go to www.elpasoteller911.org and register your phone number. Monitor TV, radio, and internet.	Make sure your phone number is registered for emergency alerts. www.elpasoteller911.org Monitor TV, radio, and internet.	Make sure your phone number is registered for emergency alerts. www.elpasoteller911.org Monitor TV, radio, and internet.
Disabilities and special needs Persons should arrange now for special evacuation help. Pack med and medical supplies. For immediate help call 911.	Disabilities and special needs Should already know who will help you evacuate. Take meds, essential equipment. For immediate help call 911.	Disabilities and special needs You should already be evacuated to somewhere safe. If not and you need help immediately, call 911. Shelter in place.
Delay can be deadly	Delay can be deadly	Delay can be deadly

WILDFIRE EVACUATION CHECKLIST

IMPORTANT PHONE NUMBERS

Friends or relatives in Colorado or out of state

Family/friends' work _____

Children's school/day care/camp _____

Other _____

EVACUATION ROUTES

Where TO GO

Hotels, motels _____

Shelters _____

LOCATION OF EMERGENCY SUPPLY KIT

NOTES
